

Awards at a Glance – GCA National Medals

Medal	What does it recognize?	Who is eligible?
Medal of Honor	Service to horticulture	Members, non-members
Achievement Medal	Creative vision, furtherance of aims of GCA	Members, member clubs
Frances K. Hutchinson	Service to conservation	Members, non-members
Margaret Douglas	Conservation education	Members given preference
Katharine Thomas Cary	Flower arrangement education	Members, member clubs
Bonnylin Woods Martin	Innovative floral designs	Members
Jane Righter Rose	Achievement in rose culture	Members, non-members, a community or organization
Florens DeBevoise	Achievement with rock garden plants	Non-members
Elvira Broome Doolan	Urban landscape architecture	Members, member clubs, non-members
Mrs. Oakleigh Thorne	Garden design, garden sculpture	Members, member clubs
Sarah Chapman Francis	Literary achievement related to GCA interests	Members, non-members
Historic Preservation	Preservation, restoration of gardens or buildings	Non-members and groups given preference.
Cynthia Pratt Laughlin	Environmental protection; maintaining quality of life	Members, non-members
Eloise Payne Luquer	Achievement related to botany – research, art, etc.	Members, non-members
Amy Angell Collier Montague	Civic achievement	Members, member clubs
Distinguished Service Medal	Service to horticulture	Members, member clubs, non-members
Natalie Peters Webster	Finding and creative use of unusual plant material	Members, member clubs
Elizabeth Craig Weaver Proctor Medal	Creative vision related to GCA interests	Non-members